FOR THE VOTERS TO DECIDE.

The SILVER BELT advocates the election of Col. J. F. Wilson for several reasons which we consider logical and which appeal to the voters in Arizona who have an abiding interest in the welfare of the territory. Col. Wilson stands on a platform that declares for the free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, which the great majority of the people believe in; for national aid in the development of our agricultural resources by the building of storage reservoirs. It advocates the cause of the people as against the shillbills who would subvert their personal ends by increasing the already heavy burden resting upon the taxpayers of the territory; it advocates a government of the people by the people, and restricting the power of the governor to appoint territorial officers and remove them at pleasure; it denounces the funding law enacted through the efforts of a republican delegate, and the funding of $300,000 of illegal bonds by the McCord administration.

The republicans in their territorial platform, on the other hand, "endorse fully the legislation accomplished by the national republican leaders" and "unhesitatingly support the judgment and discretion of the republican congress upon all questions of financial legislation." They endorse McCord when they declare: "We point with pride to the wise and efficient administration of public affairs in this territory under republican officials."

The voters of Arizona must choose which flag they will follow, and we think it can be safely left to their judgment to decide whether J. F. Wilson or A. O. Brodie would best serve the people of the territory at Washington as delegate to congress.

While there have been no political meetings held in Gila county as yet, the candidates on both tickets are making an earnest canvass of this precinct, which will this year poll more votes than in any previous election. Thus far there has been no open abuse of candidates, or dishonorable methods employed to discredit nominees on the opposing tickets and we hope there will be none. Should vilification be injected into the campaign, however, it will almost certainly react upon the party responsible for it, to the injury of its own candidates rather than to the detriment of the individual against whom the abuse is directed. In previous election years campaigns have been conducted on clean and dispassionate lines, candidates relying upon their merits and persuasive ability to command votes, politics cutting a small figure. Conditions are considerably changed this year, the percentage of new voters being larger than ever before, which opens the door to misrepresentation and slander. The candidates on both tickets have been selected from the best material in the two parties, and their capability and records as county officers should govern voters rather than their political allegiance. Efficiency and honesty should commend the candidate for office above considerations of party.

Col. J. F. Wilson, democratic nominee for delegate to Congress, has been actively in the field since his nomination Sept. 17, and has made a thorough and successful canvass of the northern counties, everywhere meeting with warm encouragement. He has been assisted by E. E. Ellingwood, J. C. Herndon, Wiley E. Jones, W. H. Barnes and other prominent democratic speakers. This week he is covering Yavapai county, where three-fourths of the population believe implicitly in the democratic doctrine of free silver coinage, home rule and equal rights. Col. Wilson will be given a rousing reception when he arrives in Globe on the 22nd inst.

To employ the time worn expression of political platform makers, "we point with pride" to the very large advertising patronage enjoyed by the SILVER BELT. Our patrons appreciate the value as an advertising medium of a newspaper that has been established for more than twenty years, has a large and rapidly growing circulation, in the county and throughout the territory, and a reputation second to no other newspaper in Arizona.

Col. Brodie is not expected to reach Arizona before the 14th inst., which will be too late to admit of his canvassing the entire territory.

The New Home Sewing Machine, second to none, list price $50 to $70; for sale for cash by C. W. Tillman at 25 per cent off.

THE RAILROAD.

Globe will soon hear the whistle of the locomotive. Since Monday last trains have been running to a point this side of Globe, eleven miles from Globe, and within a week a siding will be put in four miles west of Globe, and eight miles from Globe, which will be the terminus of the road for freight and passengers until the rails have been laid into town.

The long cut through the summit has been completed and the Midland construction crew is now camped at the Redman slaughter house and are building the grade between that point and the summit. Ward & Ross' outfit are rapidly closing the gap between the end of the track and the summit, to which point they expect to have the grade finished by October 20, which will complete their contract. Engineer Chase has been running lines to locate the switches to the smelters. The expense of building these switches will be paid for by the two copper companies.

Owing to lack of space a number of local items were omitted from our columns last week, among them announcement of the opening of the Globe public school, on Monday Oct. 8. The school is well organized with a competent corps of teachers. Herman Reed, late of Tonto, and who taught in this county, successfully, two years, is principal. He holds a first grade certificate, and is, we believe, the only person in Gila county who holds one. His assistants are Miss Geraldine Gerald, Miss Winifred Coumbe and Miss Nellie Allen, all residents of this county, and who are well equipped for teachers. The first grade and primary classes occupy the new temporary school building on the west side, and the two intermediate classes the old school house on Broad street. The total enrollment of pupils is over 200, the largest in the history of the Globe school.

Wm. J. Sparks, who left Globe April 28 last, and entered the service of the government as a packer at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., returned last Friday. He accompanied Lieut. Johnson's command that was with General Gomez' army in the province of Santa Clara, central Cuba, and saw some hard service. Having contracted fever he left Cuba Sept. 15, for the United States. He brought home several interesting mementoes of the campaign, among them a Spanish machete which he presented to Geo. W. P. Hunt, and the official transcript of the alcalde of Arroyo Blanco, an interesting document, which he gave to Chas. Holzman.

The clerk of the board of supervisors has been advised by the governor that the law admits of the election of but two supervisors, which information complicates matters in this county, since both parties have nominated three candidates for that office. As Philip Oates, chairman of the present board, was appointed to fill the unexpired term of B. F. Pascoe, elected two years ago to the long term, Mr. Oates will hold over. We understand that August Pieper, one of the democratic nominees, does not desire election, and but one of the republican candidates will have an opportunity to withdraw.

R. L. Barton came in last Tuesday from lower Tonto, bringing specimens from the Buck Horn claim, which are very rich, some of the rock showing coarse free gold. The claim lies about 900 feet from Salt river and six miles west of Tonto creek and is owned by Mr. Barton and J. I. Coleman. They have taken out enough ore for a test run, and will work it in Mr. Coleman's mill on Tonto creek.

BRODIE'S SUDDEN CONVERSION.

It is already apparent that by nominating Col. A. O. Brodie for delegate to congress the republicans made a serious mistake. It cannot be claimed for him that he is a representative republican. Two years ago Brodie was a supporter and warm personal friend of Buckie O'Neill, and an advocate of the free coinage of silver, and until he returned from Cuba clothed with the prestige of a Rough Rider, there was no intimation that he had changed his views upon the issues which divide the two great political parties.

Not until the opportunity presented itself of gaining political prominence by renouncing principles which so recently he held essential, did he show signs of wavering, and when the republican territorial convention at Prescott, in its extremity, nominated him, Brodie fell, like many ambitious men have, lured by the glamor of political notoriety. His conversion was as sudden as that of Saul of Tarsus, but how unlike it in other respects. Saul was regenerated by the fierce light which blinded his visual organs but illumined his soul. Brodie was only blinded to the folly of the step he has taken and the inconsistency of his present position.

It is certain that no citizen of Arizona who holds the free coinage of silver as a cardinal principle of his political faith will violate that belief by casting his ballot for A. O. Brodie.

The question is frequently asked of late, says the Denver Mining Reporter, to what may be attributed the renewed interest in mining enterprises, particularly in this country? The cause is not difficult to discover. Capital is always ready to engage in enterprises which pay. Mining does pay. The fact has been established. It is as legitimate a business enterprise as raising wheat or smelting iron, if it is reduced to commercial principles; and the men who have made mining successful and conservative, at this time, are those who have brought to bear on it, brains, educational equipment and ordinary common sense.

Eugene Brady O'Neill arrived in the city last night, coming directly from Mohave county, where, with Lieut. Wiley E. Jones, they stumped the county, speaking at White Hills, Cloride and Kingman. They find in that county a unanimous silver sentiment, and both parties are earnest advocates for Col. Wilson, the silver nominee. Mr. O'Neill thinks Col. Wilson will carry that county by at least 600 majority out of the 750 votes that will be cast. There is no gold standard party in Mohave county.—Phoenix Enterprise.

Rev. E. O. McIntire, appointed by the late conference of the M.E. church, to fill the pulpit of St. Paul's church, will arrive tomorrow, and will hold morning and evening services on Sunday next.

Mr. J. K. Fowler, secretary and treasurer of the Corinne Mill, Canal and Stock Co., of Corinne, Utah, in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy says: "I consider it the best in the market. I have used many kinds but find Chamberlain's the most prompt and effective in giving relief, and now keep no other in my home." When troubled with a cough or cold give this remedy a trial and we assure you that you will be more than pleased with the result. For sale by H. C. Hitchcock, druggist.

Now I am a champion of that remedy for all stomach and bowel complaints." For sale by H. C. Hitchcock, druggist.
